

AltaLIS Lowers Prices

January, 2004

Through increased usage of SDW data and increased efficiencies within the SDW/AltaLIS initiative, we are pleased to announce that AltaLIS has significantly lowered the prices of several key products effective January 1, 2004.

The following is a description of the price changes:

Rural Cadastral Mapping – list prices have been reduced from $200 to $100 per township.

Urban Cadastral Mapping – list prices have been reduced by half for those who order full urban areas.

Title Mapping – list prices have been reduced from $200 to $100 per township for rural areas and have been reduced by half in the urban areas.

Cadastral/Title Bundle – pricing for the cadastral/title bundles have also been reduced by half.

1:1million scale Topographic Map – price has been reduced from $800 to $400 for full provincial coverage.

1:250 000 scale Topographic Maps – price has been reduced from $250 to $125 per NTS sheet.

Municipal Boundary File – the price has been reduced from $1,250 to $625 for full provincial coverage.

AltaLIS has been offering reduced pricing through a variety of licensing options and volume discounts since March 2000. All of these previous price reductions remain in effect.
